Wednesday Friends – Keep Fit: We have a new instructor for the group, Debbie. She is very fit, helpful and easy to follow. She provides a mixture of exercises in the hour ranging from warm up to circuits via a bit of dance. Something for everyone! Also, if you cannot keep up with your friends, you can exercise in a chair as she caters for that also. The session is followed by a cuppa and a natter. Altogether a very enjoyable afternoon. Why not come along and join in, you will be surprised at what you can do.

Health and Safety Notice: Whilst we have no Emergency exit signs within St Austin’s, there are in fact TWO emergency exits available through the doors to the left and right of the altar which lead to Wentworth Terrace or the gardens at the rear of the church. We have never had to use them but all parishioners should be mindful of their location.

Your Offerings: When parishioners make their offerings by way of Standing Order or Envelopes, pay tax and have agreed to, or signed, a Gift Aid Declaration (GAD) the parish can reclaim 25% of the offering at no additional cost. In the last financial year we benefitted by claiming £15,000 from HMRC. Please help us to maximise offerings by using Standing Orders or envelopes and then by signing a GAD. If you require any assistance, please contact the Parish GAD administrator, Niall O’Donnell on 01924 870403 or niallodonn@aol.com.
