If you are going into hospital, please specifically request to be registered as a Catholic so that a member of the Catholic Chaplaincy team can visit you. It would be even more helpful if you were to advise the parish office as requests to be registered as a Catholic in hospital aren't always followed. Fr Crawley is chaplain at Pinderfields and along with another parishioner, makes regular rounds there. Cards are available in both churches which contain the parish contact details and also details of your human rights to request a Catholic Chaplain. Please sign the back of this card and keep it in your wallet or purse in case of emergency.

Advance Notice – Save the Date! On Saturday 1 September there will be a parish coach trip to Knowsley Safari Park. You can bring your children and/or grandchildren, (children you can bring your parents and/or grandparents) for a fun day out to see tigers, sea lions and to feed giraffes! More details will follow later.

Hall Hire: Do you need to find somewhere for a meeting, celebration, party or family get together? The rooms, bar and hall are available for hire on weekdays, evenings and weekends. If you are interested please call Paul Blackburn on 01924 374248.
