Parish Christmas Post – The St Austin's Christmas Postal Service will be closed this year! Current Covid19 restrictions prevent the unnecessary distribution of paper. So unfortunately the postal trays in the Narthex will have to remain empty. 200+ Club winners for November - congratulations to Ann Parish who won £200 and to Sophie Chchocki who won £50 Christmas in the Parish of St Austin and the English Martyrs – we will publish the times of the Masses for Christmas next weekend. There will, of course, have to be more Masses than usual to try and afford people the opportunity to attend on the Feast. But it is more important than ever that people make the effort to book a place for Mass as the demand will be very great. The Bishop has given permission for people to fulfil their Christmas duty by attending Mass on any day during the Octave of Christmas [which finishes on New Year's Day]. Let us try and make this Christmas a special as possible in these difficult times.

Items for the Bulletin: Please email office.staustin.englishmartyrs@dioceseofleeds.org.uk before noon on Thursday marked "Item for the Bulletin" or post a note through the presbytery letter box.
